A great deal of material (repair parts for planes, bombs, and gasoline) is brought to the field by railway and in large transport planes. About 150 bombers and 30 fighters are stationed at the field. There are 1700 soldiers, many of them Polish. The 600-man labor force is made up of Germans who live in Szczecin and Altdamm. The road to Altdamm has been moved, as shown in the sketch. The Szczecin-Altdamm railway bridge has been repaired with timbers and is now usable.
